THE ELECTION.

The election returns are sufficient to satisfy all that Mr. Harding, Republican, has been elected President, and along with him the Senate and House of Representatives was caught in the landslide. So there can be no dodging of the responsibilities of the administration of the whole government, which has been turned over to the Republicans party. It seems certain that the League of Nations and Wilson policies are overwhelmingly rejected by the people. Virginia and the South remains steadfast to Democracy and elects her Senators and Representatives. Mr. Flood defeats his independent opponent by decision majority.

The returns from Appomattox show a large vote polled with Rock's precinct not reported:

Cox, 783	Hadling, 181
Glass, 940	Pollard, 46
Flood, 894	Grasty, 122

BUCKINGHAM

Before this appears in print a new president will have been elected and I am wearing a Democratic rooster ready to crow over our victory and do hope I am not too precious.

Mr. Flood delighted and instructed the men and women voters of Dilwyn and Arvonia in a speech he made at both places last week.

Abbreviated catalogues are coming to us from the main order houses announcing the lower prices on many lines of goods, they say the prices of print paper is so enormous they cannot afford to get out a new big catalog at this time, but they ask their customers to borrow the last catalog from their neighbor if they haven't one themselves and compare the prices as they now are with the prices in the last big catalog.

Mr. George Patterson Jr., has been to Mount Pleasant, his old home on a visit.

Mr. A. C. Garrett was on the sick list a part of last week.

The Young People's Society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Glover on Saturday evening last.

The old Shaw property is advertised to be sold here today Monday.

Mr. P. A. Grigg is home for a rest after having worked in the South since the opening of the tobacco market there.

The death of Mr. William Williams which took place last week was no great surprise to those who knew of his illness, but we have lost a public spirited citizen and a man of rare good business judgment. Mr. Williams was 88 years old, a veteran of the civil war, an enthusiastic Democratic. He was for several terms Sheriff of Buckingham county.

Rev. Mr. Barrell is having an ice house dug on the Manselot.

Mr. Lewis Williams has treated his house to a new coat of paint.

The pupils in the High School here seem to dress in accordance to the magnificent new school building, they dress better than many of the pupils in the city schools.

Miss Mabel Grosscoole spent the week end in Lynchburg.

The children's songs in the Presbyterian Sunday school were much enjoyed on rally day.

An order house in Chicago sent me a grocery catalog quoting granulated sugar at nine and four-fifths cents a pound.

I sold some old corn at $1.50 a bushel which could have been sold in summer at $2.50 a bushel. I sold home cured meat the past week at 30 cents for shoulders and 40 cents for hams and merchants are retailing western sides at 24 and 25 cents a pound.

Beef on the local market is selling for 18, 20 and 25 cents a pound. What most concerns farmers who need this is what they are going to get for their tobacco I hear that some has already been sold at prices that would not pay for the fertilizer and labor. Farmers, however, have produced more food for home consumption than ever; they have canned and preserved more fruit and vegetables; they have raised more fowls and hogs, and are ready to go into winter quarters out of debt, and if they could get the beef hide made into clothes and their wool made into clothes they would be of the most independent class.

Jesse S. Thorhills

Jesse S. Thorhills, 77 years of age, a Confederate veteran, died at his home in Lynchburg last Saturday, after a long illness. He is survived by one son, C. O. Thorhills, and four daughters, Misses Lellie, Bunchie and Elmeline Thorhills and Mrs. Janie Harvev, all of Lynchburg. Mr. Thorhills was a member of Rivermont Baptist church.

The deceased was reared and lived in Appomattox up to about 15 years ago, and was highly esteemed here, where his death will be generally regretted.

Forest View
Jack Frost has made its appearance, and it makes us think of the poetry which reads:

The melancholy days have come
The saddest of the year,
With meadow bown and scar
And leaves bown and bear

There were two whole preachers at Central Baptist church last Sunday a.m.

Mr. W. T. Nash don't seem to stop for his broken stem. He took a truck load of bright tobacco to South Boston last week, but reported low prices.

Mr. A. S. Woodrige spent last Monday in Lynchburg on business.

Mr. Burch Nash has treated himself to a new car, he is working in Lynchburg and motored home last Saturday accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Lester Woodrige, to see their father, Mr. Thos. Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin spent last Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Woodrige.

Several of the young people of this neighborhood attended the Halloween Festival at Woodland school house last Saturday night and reported a good time.

Mr. R. W. Martin and sons have almost completed their new tobacco pit and picking house.

We understand that Rev. Lambdin will preach his farewell sermon at Wesley Chapel Sunday p.m. The people hate to see him leave this circuit.

Mr. John Hugh entreated a number of her friends last Sunday.

Mr. Henry White, of Richmond, is visiting at the home of Mr. Nathan Marshall.

The Better Babies Contest

The Better Babies Contest was held at the W. C. T. U. at the County Fair, awarded the prizes Saturday afternoon at M. E. church.

A good program was given as follows: Meeting presided over by Mr. R. C. Wagner, singing, devotions, Rev. L. E. Calhoun. Miss Eddie H. Rody gave a very helpful talk to mothers, from a teacher's standpoint. A dialogue was given by two little girls from Concord Union. Mrs. L. Ould, of Concord, gave a very pleasing talk to the mothers. She then awarded the prizes as follows:

1st division (six months to 1 year) H. B. Babcock 1st prize, a silver cup. Mary Frances Coleman 2nd prize, baby toilet.

set, given by Dr. James Douglass Puckett 3rd prize.

2nd division (1 to 2 years) Nellie Turnes 1st prize, Silver cup. Carl Evans 2nd prize, baby spoon. Helen E. Sears, Caroline Moses, Richard Burke Wallace O'Brien, 3rd.

Of the 18 babies examined, all scored high, and we are very proud of our fine lot of Appomattox babies and wish we had a prize for all.

Mrs. Wagner after reading the scoring of each child presented them with a flower.

The mothers then decided to have a "Mothers Club" for all mothers to meet every two months, that they might study together, and to push the Better Babies interest and have a Better Babies Contest in the future. All mothers are urged to join.

Money Invested in Government Stamps Will Pay for Spanish War and Pan American Canal.

Molly Drinkard, Pupil, HARDY SCHOOL

As a result of patriotic work done in the schools of the country the amount of money now invested in government savings securities exceeds the cost of the Spanish-American War and the Panama Canal according to official figures recently compiled. The national debt was increased approximately $300,000,000 by the war with Spain and cost about $300,000,000 to build the Panama Canal.

This is taken to indicate the steady growth of trust and savings funds in the United States. Much of the money invested last year by school children in the government's savings securities was earned by the children, a large portion probably would have been spent wastefully but for the savings societies which were active in so many of the schools. In this federal reserve district, which embraces Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia, North and South Carolina, there were last session more than 11,000 savings societies in the public schools.

All of them in the public schools in the five states were visited last summer by Miss Mary G. Shotwell, director of the educational division of the War Loan Organization of this district, and as a result of these visits thousands of teachers and students learned the teaching of the art of the principles of which are now being taught to tens of thousands of children in the public schools.

The savings movement is being conducted in every part of the United States under the direction of the Treasury Department. It encourages increased production, systematic saving, wise spending and safe investment. To help people save the government offers the Thrift Stamps. Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificate is the big brother of the Savings Certificates is the big brother of the Savings Stamps, and it bears interest at the rate of four per cent.

In all parts of this state and throughout the rest of the district the boys and girls in the public schools, who are beginning to realize the importance of saving money, are reorganizing their savings societies and clubs, and indications are that this session they will do even better than last year.

Common Sense as Ballast. Common sense is a valuable resource for a man to have in an upper chamber, provided he has common sense on the ground floor—Oliver Wendell Holmes.
